We help households and businesses move from Brisbane to Melbourne, with packing, transport and storage arranged around the job.

Melbourne has a different climate and daily travel pattern from Brisbane. Keep suitable clothing and essentials with you and check access and commuting needs for your new address.

If you have made up your mind about making a move to Melbourne, the next step is working out how to move all your belongings.

Brisbane to Melbourne is approximately 1,800 kilometres by road, depending on the route. Collection, loading, scheduling and delivery take additional time, so agree a door-to-door window rather than planning around driving time alone.

Discuss the complete inventory, dates and access with us before arranging a handover or work start around delivery.

What affects the Brisbane-to-Melbourne price?

The price depends on the furniture and carton volume, addresses, access, dates and services such as packing or storage. Bedroom count is only a starting point; provide an inventory, including garage and outdoor items.

Describe stairs, steep driveways, long carries and loading restrictions. Confirm labour, transport, materials, minimum charges and optional work in the written quote, along with the process for scope changes.

Prepare for arrival in Melbourne

Confirm when you will receive the keys, whether a lift or loading area must be booked and who can accept the furniture. Keep clothing, documents and daily essentials with you for the agreed delivery window. Discuss storage if collection and occupancy dates do not align.

Discuss packing and delivery requirements

Choose full or selected-item packing and agree any dismantling, reassembly, unpacking or storage in your quote. Our customer experiences can help you discuss a similar move, but the plan should reflect your own belongings and access.

Confirm the people and responsibilities

Confirm who will handle collection, transport and delivery for your addresses and dates, who will provide updates, and whether any separate carrier or specialist is involved. Confirm who handles your collection and delivery, the update contact and any separate specialist work. Request evidence of credentials you require before booking.

Prepare the Brisbane to Melbourne collection

Work through the rooms, garage and other storage areas and record the complete load. Identify fragile items, heavy pieces and equipment requiring a particular handling plan. Explain whether furniture will travel assembled or whether dismantling and reassembly are requested. An item name alone may not convey unusual dimensions or access requirements.

Describe stairs, lifts, parking, long carries and restricted loading times at both ends. Confirm who arranges building access and whether the vehicle can use the planned collection point. If you do not yet know the delivery address, tell the coordinator what is unresolved so the estimate is not mistaken for a fully confirmed door-to-door plan.

Choose full packing, selected-item packing or self-packing according to the work you want performed. Agree the materials and timing. Label cartons with destination rooms and identify special-care items for the crew. Keep the essentials needed before delivery separate from the load, including the booking information and the contact for the move.

Separate transport time from the whole relocation

Road-distance and driving-hour examples describe the scale of the journey. They do not include every collection, loading, routing, scheduling, storage and delivery step. Ask for an estimate for the actual service and discuss any fixed date for work, keys or a business reopening before booking.

If collection and occupancy do not align, identify which goods need storage and which must remain available. Confirm the facility, storage period, access and return delivery. Modular, mobile-container and self-storage descriptions have different access arrangements; choose based on how you need to use the goods during the gap.

Check inclusions and responsibility

Your written quote should identify the load, addresses, services and pricing assumptions. Confirm packing materials, furniture work, access requirements, storage, minimum charges and any additional fees before booking. If the inventory, dates or access changes, ask us to confirm the revised scope and price in writing.

Identify who performs each stage and who is responsible for communication. Ask separately about the insurance for your goods and obtain the relevant policy information. A description of an insured carrier or an AFRA member does not establish that every item and circumstance is covered. Read the insurance checks before deciding on cover.

Respond to a changed plan or delivery problem

Tell the coordinator about changes to the inventory, access, keys or dates as soon as they are known. Ask for the revised timing, services and any cost effect in writing. If delivery cannot proceed, discuss the available storage or redelivery arrangement rather than assuming it is included automatically.

At delivery, identify destination rooms and the agreed placement, unpacking or assembly tasks. Use the inventory and booking documents to raise any missing item, damage or unfinished work through the stated reporting process. Keep the relevant communications together so the concern can be followed up by the person responsible for the move.

What should I confirm before booking a Brisbane to Melbourne move?

Before booking, agree the complete Brisbane to Melbourne inventory, addresses, access and collection and delivery windows in writing. For this southbound move, plan your own arrival around the delivery window and keep clothing for Melbourne's cooler conditions available outside the furniture load. List packing, furniture dismantling, storage and final placement separately so each task has an agreed owner. Include unusual dimensions, heavy items and any deadline that cannot move. Ask who handles each stage and who will provide updates. Check the price assumptions, payment dates and change or cancellation terms before accepting the booking.

For a Brisbane-to-Melbourne service enquiry, is the driving time the same as the delivery time?

No. Driving time describes only part of a Brisbane to Melbourne relocation; it does not include preparing the load, collection, loading, service scheduling, any storage or unloading. Ask for the actual collection and delivery windows and whether either date is confirmed or estimated. Keep essential clothing, documents and work items with you for the expected gap. If a lease end or work start is fixed, explain that before the transport plan is agreed.

For a Brisbane-to-Melbourne service enquiry, what if my new property is not ready?

For your Brisbane to Melbourne move, arrange the delivery gap before the load leaves Brisbane wherever possible. Tell the coordinator when Melbourne access is uncertain and identify which belongings can remain stored and which you need immediately. Ask about the facility, storage format, retrieval access, handling and redelivery charges, and record any revised dates or costs with the booking. Provide the receiving contact and property access once confirmed. Storage is a separate stage to agree, not an automatic answer to a missed key handover.

For a Brisbane-to-Melbourne service enquiry, what insurance arrangements should I check?

Ask for the current insurance options and documents for the goods on your Brisbane to Melbourne move before deciding on cover. Check the provider, relevant authorisation, insured events, exclusions, excess, valuation requirements and claims process. Explain any owner-packed cartons, fragile or high-value items and storage period so those circumstances can be checked against the terms. The removalist's business insurance is not automatically cover for every customer item. Retain the inventory, condition records and policy information, and ask how and when any concern must be reported.

What affects the cost of a Brisbane to Melbourne move?

For Brisbane to Melbourne, the price depends on the complete furniture and carton volume, both addresses, access, dates and selected services. Include garage and outdoor goods as well as the main rooms. Ask which packing materials and furniture tasks are included, check minimums and additional charges, and retain the written scope. Update us if those details change.

For a Brisbane-to-Melbourne service enquiry, can I choose how much packing help I need?

Yes. We offer full packing or selected-item packing, which you can discuss for your Brisbane to Melbourne move. A full pack reduces the rooms you need to prepare yourself; a partial pack can focus on delicate or bulky goods while you pack ordinary possessions. Agree materials, the packing date, labelling and any dismantling or unpacking separately in the quote. Tell us about unusually valuable or fragile pieces before packing begins. Keep personal essentials and items that will travel with you clearly separate from the removal load.

For a Brisbane-to-Melbourne service enquiry, what should I keep available until delivery?

Keep the things you need during the Brisbane to Melbourne delivery window with you rather than in the main load: essential clothing, personal documents, booking information, chargers and immediate work or household items. Decide this before packing so those bags are not loaded accidentally. Use the agreed schedule to plan the quantity you need, including any storage gap. Label the first cartons to be opened at the destination and keep an inventory copy available so you and the receiving contact can identify priority rooms and raise missing-item concerns.
