Discuss the services, cover and schedule for relocations from Brisbane to Perth.

The Brisbane-to-Perth journey spans approximately 4,300 kilometres by road, depending on the route. We can coordinate packing, transport and unpacking for household or business relocations, with collection and delivery windows agreed for your booking.

We plan around your inventory, access and the services needed before and after transport. Identify heavy, delicate or specialist items at the quoting stage.

Whether it’s a one-bedroom apartment, a large family home or a professional office space, we can make it happen. So, when you engage Fragile Removals to undertake your next relocation, what can you expect?

A customised relocation service

We can quote transport alone or a wider service including packing, storage and delivery tasks. Choose the work you need and confirm the responsibilities in writing.

Planning

We start with your inventory, addresses, access and timing requirements. Explain any fixed work or business-opening deadline before booking so we can assess the collection and delivery plan.

Packing

Choose full or selected-item packing and agree materials, preparation and timing. Tell us about delicate items, unusual dimensions and any manufacturer instructions before packing begins.

Transport

Confirm the transport method, collection and delivery windows and how updates will be provided for your move. The cross-country distance is only part of the schedule; loading, service routing, storage and unloading also need to be allowed for.

Unpacking

We can include unpacking and agreed furniture placement at delivery. For a business move, identify the equipment and work areas needed first, and arrange technical installation or commissioning separately.

Storage

If your collection and occupancy dates do not align, discuss storage before departure. Identify the goods, likely term, access needs and return delivery, including any essentials you need before the main load arrives.

Insurance

Request written confirmation of any insurance arrangement for your goods, including the provider, policy, exclusions, excess and claims process. Business insurance is separate from cover for particular belongings.

Discuss a similar relocation

Read our customer experiences and ask us how the proposed packing, transport and delivery plan meets your route and property requirements.

Match the scope to your household or business

Whether you need transport alone or packing, storage and unpacking as well, have each task itemised in the quote. Identify fixed deadlines, the contacts at both properties and any dependency on keys, fit-out or another provider.

Confirm crew and carrier arrangements

Confirm who will handle collection, transport and delivery for your addresses and dates, who will provide updates, and whether any separate carrier or specialist is involved. Confirm who will handle each stage of the route, your contact for updates and any specialist work. Request current evidence for credentials you require.

Prepare the Brisbane to Perth collection

Work through the rooms, garage and other storage areas and record the complete load. Identify fragile items, heavy pieces and equipment requiring a particular handling plan. Explain whether furniture will travel assembled or whether dismantling and reassembly are requested. An item name alone may not convey unusual dimensions or access requirements.

Describe stairs, lifts, parking, long carries and restricted loading times at both ends. Confirm who arranges building access and whether the vehicle can use the planned collection point. If you do not yet know the delivery address, tell the coordinator what is unresolved so the estimate is not mistaken for a fully confirmed door-to-door plan.

Choose full packing, selected-item packing or self-packing according to the work you want performed. Agree the materials and timing. Label cartons with destination rooms and identify special-care items for the crew. Keep the essentials needed before delivery separate from the load, including the booking information and the contact for the move.

Separate transport time from the whole relocation

Road-distance and driving-hour examples describe the scale of the journey. They do not include every collection, loading, routing, scheduling, storage and delivery step. Ask for an estimate for the actual service and discuss any fixed date for work, keys or a business reopening before booking.

If collection and occupancy do not align, identify which goods need storage and which must remain available. Confirm the facility, storage period, access and return delivery. Modular, mobile-container and self-storage descriptions have different access arrangements; choose based on how you need to use the goods during the gap.

Check inclusions and responsibility

Your written quote should identify the load, addresses, services and pricing assumptions. Confirm packing materials, furniture work, access requirements, storage, minimum charges and any additional fees before booking. If the inventory, dates or access changes, ask us to confirm the revised scope and price in writing.

Identify who performs each stage and who is responsible for communication. Ask separately about the insurance for your goods and obtain the relevant policy information. A description of an insured carrier or an AFRA member does not establish that every item and circumstance is covered. Read the insurance checks before deciding on cover.

Respond to a changed plan or delivery problem

Tell the coordinator about changes to the inventory, access, keys or dates as soon as they are known. Ask for the revised timing, services and any cost effect in writing. If delivery cannot proceed, discuss the available storage or redelivery arrangement rather than assuming it is included automatically.

At delivery, identify destination rooms and the agreed placement, unpacking or assembly tasks. Use the inventory and booking documents to raise any missing item, damage or unfinished work through the stated reporting process. Keep the relevant communications together so the concern can be followed up by the person responsible for the move.

What should I confirm before booking a Brisbane to Perth move?

Prepare for the full period without the main load, particularly if work or a business opening begins before delivery. List packing, furniture dismantling, storage and placement separately, identify heavy or unusual items and fixed deadlines, and confirm the update contact, price assumptions and booking terms.

For a Brisbane-to-Perth service enquiry, is the driving time the same as the delivery time?

No. Driving time describes only part of a Brisbane to Perth relocation; it does not include preparing the load, collection, loading, service scheduling, any storage or unloading. Ask for the actual collection and delivery windows and whether either date is confirmed or estimated. Keep essential clothing, documents and work items with you for the expected gap. If a lease end or work start is fixed, explain that before the transport plan is agreed.

For a Brisbane-to-Perth service enquiry, what if my new property is not ready?

For your Brisbane to Perth move, arrange the delivery gap before the load leaves Brisbane wherever possible. Tell the coordinator when Perth access is uncertain and identify which belongings can remain stored and which you need immediately. Ask about the facility, storage format, retrieval access, handling and redelivery charges, and record any revised dates or costs with the booking. Provide the receiving contact and property access once confirmed. Storage is a separate stage to agree, not an automatic answer to a missed key handover.

For a Brisbane-to-Perth service enquiry, what insurance arrangements should I check?

Ask for the current insurance options and documents for the goods on your Brisbane to Perth move before deciding on cover. Check the provider, relevant authorisation, insured events, exclusions, excess, valuation requirements and claims process. Explain any owner-packed cartons, fragile or high-value items and storage period so those circumstances can be checked against the terms. The removalist's business insurance is not automatically cover for every customer item. Retain the inventory, condition records and policy information, and ask how and when any concern must be reported.

What affects the cost of a Brisbane to Perth move?

Price the complete inventory and service for the Brisbane-to-Perth journey, including packing or storage, rather than using distance alone. Include garage and outdoor goods, access at both properties and preferred dates. Check materials, furniture tasks, minimum charges and any extras in the quote, and update us if the scope changes.

For a Brisbane-to-Perth service enquiry, can I choose how much packing help I need?

Yes. We offer full packing or selected-item packing, which you can discuss for your Brisbane to Perth move. A full pack reduces the rooms you need to prepare yourself; a partial pack can focus on delicate or bulky goods while you pack ordinary possessions. Agree materials, the packing date, labelling and any dismantling or unpacking separately in the quote. Tell us about unusually valuable or fragile pieces before packing begins. Keep personal essentials and items that will travel with you clearly separate from the removal load.

For a Brisbane-to-Perth service enquiry, what should I keep available until delivery?

Keep the things you need during the Brisbane to Perth delivery window with you rather than in the main load: essential clothing, personal documents, booking information, chargers and immediate work or household items. Decide this before packing so those bags are not loaded accidentally. Use the agreed schedule to plan the quantity you need, including any storage gap. Label the first cartons to be opened at the destination and keep an inventory copy available so you and the receiving contact can identify priority rooms and raise missing-item concerns.

Why should you confirm crew and carrier arrangements?

Confirm who will handle collection, transport and delivery for your addresses and dates, who will provide updates, and whether any separate carrier or specialist is involved. Confirm who will handle each stage of the route, your contact for updates and any specialist work.
