Details:

Adelaide offers inner neighbourhoods, established residential areas and options further from the centre. These ten areas are a starting point for a personal shortlist. Compare the specific home, your daily journeys and current costs before deciding.

Ten areas to investigate

Plympton

Consider Plympton if you want to compare a location between central Adelaide and the coast. Check the walk from a particular home to useful transport and shops rather than assuming every street has the same access.

Richmond

Richmond is an inner-west option to investigate for access to the city and western destinations. Visit the property at busy times and check traffic, parking and the route to your workplace.

Paradise and Newton

These are two distinct north-eastern suburbs. Compare the homes, local parks and everyday services in each, and test the full trip to work or education.

Windsor Gardens

Windsor Gardens offers a north-eastern residential option. Look at the specific street, nearby open space and the transport connections you would use each week.

Goodwood and Millswood

These neighbouring inner-southern areas are worth comparing if local shopping streets and access to central Adelaide matter to you. Older properties may need closer checks of entrances, storage and furniture access.

Unley and Parkside

Unley and Parkside provide inner-southern alternatives with established residential streets and local businesses. Compare the layout and cost of actual homes, including parking and any renovation work needed.

Prospect

Prospect is an inner-northern option with a local shopping and dining precinct. Explore the route from a candidate home to everyday destinations and visit at the times you expect to be out.

Northgate, Oakden and Gilles Plains

These north-eastern areas give you several residential settings to compare. Match the home and nearby services to your household, and check the commute from each address separately.

North Adelaide

North Adelaide combines established streets, dining and access to the Park Lands and Adelaide Oval. Event traffic, parking and the precise journey into the city are useful checks for a prospective address.

Norwood

The Parade is a useful focus for shopping and dining in Norwood. Compare homes within practical reach of the places you use, and check current bus and other transport connections for your actual trip.

Compare the journey and the property

Use the Adelaide journey planner with the exact address and your usual travel times. Include the walk to stops and any transfers. Confirm school enrolment and other essential services directly, and compare current housing costs for homes that meet the same requirements.

Plan delivery to your new home

Once you have a likely address, send us your inventory, dates and access details. Tell us about stairs, lifts, loading restrictions and large furniture, and ask for packing or storage to be included if needed. Confirm the collection and delivery arrangements in your written quote. For a move to Adelaide, which Adelaide areas should I consider?

Start with the areas whose location and housing fit your routine: Plympton; Richmond; Paradise and Newton; Windsor Gardens; Goodwood and Millswood; Unley and Parkside; Prospect; Northgate, Oakden and Gilles Plains; North Adelaide; Norwood. This is a shortlist of options, not a ranking or a promise that every property will suit you. Choose two or three areas to investigate against your budget, regular journeys and essential services.

How do I compare Adelaide's inner and north-eastern options?

Start with the destinations you visit most. North Adelaide and Norwood offer inner neighbourhood settings, while the north-eastern shortlist includes Paradise, Newton, Windsor Gardens, Northgate, Oakden and Gilles Plains. Compare actual homes and door-to-door journeys rather than choosing solely on distance to the centre. Add parking and ongoing household costs to the housing comparison.

Are Paradise and Newton one suburb?

No. Paradise and Newton are distinct north-eastern Adelaide suburbs. Investigate each address separately for housing, parks, services and travel. When requesting a removal quote, provide the full street address and suburb so access and the route are assessed for the correct property.

What should I check before choosing North Adelaide?

Consider access to the Park Lands, dining and the destinations you use regularly. Visit the particular street at different times and investigate parking and event-day conditions around Adelaide Oval. Then check the home's layout, furniture access and your ordinary commute rather than treating proximity to a landmark as the whole decision.

How can I compare Goodwood, Millswood, Unley and Parkside?

These inner-southern areas provide several established residential settings to investigate. Compare current homes with the same space requirements, the walk to useful shops or transport and the full route to work or education. In older properties, check entrances, storage and the fit of larger furniture before deciding what to move.

For a move to Adelaide, what information do you need for a removal quote?

Send us the collection and delivery addresses, inventory, preferred dates and the first day you can receive furniture. Describe stairs, lifts, parking, long carries and unusual items. Include packing, dismantling or storage in the requested scope. If details change after the quote, tell us so we can review the arrangements. For a move to Adelaide, keep any route-, service- or property-specific variation with the accepted written scope.
